The board of directors of said bank as Trustee shall constitute the body who shall have the sole power and authority to formulate and promulgate such rules regulations and restrictions consistent with the objectives and purposes of this trust, under which financial assistance shall

Of the students selected, the Trustee expects that they will cooperate heartily with the Trustee and the institution of learning which they attend.

Each beneficiary, upon receiving a loan, shall give a written promissory note for same, due upon demand, and the sum loaned shall be repaid by such beneficiary, without interest, when his or her financial condition may permit them to make such repayment.
